President's Corner...

Octoberfest luncheon was a very fun event! So many of you came to join us. However, the member number drawn WAS NOT THERE! We were entertained by the wonderful Laguna Woods "Harmonaires," performing musical numbers that had us tapping our feet, clapping hands, and singing.

At our Election Lunch, November 21 the drawing will be $175.00! With the Holiday Season almost here, who could not use the "extra cash"? Be sure to come, bring your friends (to join the Sr. Citizens Club) and meet other members. We have some great entertainment planned as well.

Be sure to use the Ballot in this Newsletter to vote for the Sr. Board Members, either mail it in, or drop it into the Ballot Box in the Sr. Office.

Nominations for the Sr. Club Board are welcomed from the floor. If you know someone wanting to serve on the Board, please – please ask them and nominate them. We are always looking for others wanting to serve and share their talents/ideas with the Club.

The plans are continuing for our "Big Event" – the Concert in Celebration of the Senior Club's 30th Anniversary. Keep reading our monthly newsletter for all of the news. By the way, if you are interested in helping with the planning or whatever please contact me or Beth Andrini. We welcome all suggestions or ideas.

The Christmas Luncheon tickets are available in the Sr. Club Office. Reminder: Members tickets $14; Non-member tickets $18. A wonderful lunch by Jolanda and entertaining music (just listen or dance) by the "Ole Smoothies." Mr. & Mrs. Santa will be there, of course.

There are several "new desk volunteers" serving now, please welcome them, introduce yourself, sit and talk for a bit. Again, we are happy to have you "work" 2 hours helping out during this "active time" — renewing memberships, selling Christmas Party tickets, etc. Give Geri Grignano a call, if you can help.

On Friday, November 7, the Sea Country Center is having a Senior Expo. Plan to come, see the vendors displays, advertising their products or services. There may be just the service or product you have been searching for.

Wednesday Bingo is exciting! New people are coming to play every week. Several Club members and Board members are volunteering to keep this event a fun "meeting place." Remember: Doors Open & Buy-ins begin at 11:30. At 12:20 exactly, the doors close... Bingo begins approximately at 12:30. Game "winnings are counted, divided, recorded to keep an accurate "paper trail," then the "callers" start the games. Be sure to allow yourself plenty of time to arrive promptly! The games must end "timely," as many players have established "pick up times" and cannot stay late. Thank you so much for this consideration, we want you to enjoy this activity.

A reminder as well: Used stamps, greeting cards, eye glasses and items for our troops can be dropped off at the Sr. Office. These items are collected by our Sr. Club, for other charitable organizations and are very much needed.

Ooooops, I almost forgot!!!! WE MUST REMEMBER to do our responsible duty --
-- VOTE ON NOVEMBER 4 -- Our votes count!

Once again I say, "Please come to visit our Sr. Club Office, attend the events, enjoy meeting new friends. And most of all... I look forward to meeting and talking with you."

Sincerely,
Yvonne Davis, President

Mornings on Horseback
by David McCullough

The National Book Award-winning biography that tells the story of how young Teddy Roosevelt transformed himself from a sickly boy into the vigorous man who would become a war hero and ultimately president of the United States, told by master historian David McCullough.

This is the story of a remarkable little boy, seriously handicapped by recurrent and almost fatal asthma attacks, and his struggle to manhood: an amazing metamorphosis seen in the context of the very uncommon household in which he was raised.

"a beautifully told story, filled with fresh detail"
(The New York Times Book Review).

Grandma's Invitation (Priceless)

Dear Family,

I'm not dead yet. Thanksgiving is still important to me. If being in my Last Will and Testament is important to you, then you might consider being with me for my favorite holiday.

Dinner is at 2:00... Not 2:15... Not 2:05... Two. 2:00

Last year, that moron Marshall fried a turkey in one of those contraptions and practically burned the deck off the house. This year, the only peanut oil used to make the meal will be from the secret scoop of peanut butter I add to the carrot soup.

Jonathan, your last new wife is an idiot. You don't arrive at someone's house on Thanksgiving needing to use the oven and the stove. Honest to God, I thought you might have learned after two wives - date them longer and save us all the agony of another divorce.

Now, the house rules are slightly different this year because I have decided that 47% of you don't know how to take care of nice things. Paper plates and red Solo cups might be bad for the environment, but I'll be gone soon and that will be your problem to deal with.

House Rules:

1. The University of Texas no longer plays Texas A&M. The television stays off during the meal.

2. The "no cans for kids" rule still exists. We are using 2 liter bottles because your children still open a third can before finishing the first two. Parents can fill a child's cup when it is empty. All of the cups have names on them and I'll be paying close attention to refills.

3. Chloe, last year we were at Trudy's house and I looked the other way when your Jell-O salad showed up. This year, if Jell-O salad comes in the front door it will go right back out the back door with the garbage. Save yourself some time, honey. You've never been a good cook and you shouldn't bring something that wiggles more than you. Buy something from the bakery.

4. Grandmothers give grandchildren cookies and candy. That is a fact of life. Your children can eat healthy at your home. At my home, they can eat whatever they like as long as they finish it.

5. I cook with bacon and bacon grease. That's nothing new. Your being a vegetarian doesn't change the fact that stuffing without bacon is like egg salad without eggs. Even the green bean casserole has a little bacon grease in it. That's why it tastes so good. Not eating bacon is just not natural. And as far as being healthy... look at me. I've outlived almost everyone I know.

6. Salad at Thanksgiving is a waste of space.

7. I do not like cell phones at family get together's. If you sit at the table and text on your phone when here, or if you decide you must talk to someone during dinner. I will take it from you and drop it into pot of cracking hot bacon grease on the stove that is there just for that purpose.

8. I do not like video cameras. There will be 32 people here. I am sure you can capture lots of memories without the camera pointed at me.

9. Being a mother means you have to actually pay attention to the kids. I have nice things and I don't put them away just because company is coming over. Mary, watch your kids and I'll watch my things. I know what is here, so don't force me to frisk and search when the party is over.

10. Rhonda, a cat that requires a shot twice a day is a cat that has lived too many lives. I think staying home to care for the cat is your way of letting me know that I have lived too many lives too. I can live with that. Can you?

11. Words mean things. I say what I mean. Let me repeat: You don't need to bring anything means you don't need to bring anything. And if I did tell you to bring something, bring it in the quantity I said. Really, this doesn't have to be difficult.

12. Dominos and cards are better than anything that requires a battery or an on/off switch. That was true when you were kids and it's true now that you have kids.

13. Showing up for Thanksgiving guarantees presents at Christmas. Not showing up guarantees a card that may or may not be signed.

In memory of your Grandfather, the back fridge will be filled with beer. Drink until it is gone. I prefer wine anyway. But one person from each family needs to be the designated driver and must have a valid driver's license.

I really mean all of the above.

Love You,

Grandma

The Laguna Woods Village “HARMONAIRES”

Guests at the October 17th 3rd Friday Sr. Club Luncheon were once again treated to an outstanding singing performance by The Laguna Woods Village Harmonaires. They are a group of very talented ladies having fun singing, while using the proceeds from their performance to benefit UCI music majors with scholarships! They were dressed in black with festive gold sparkly tunics and bow ties, and their renditions of old standard melodies brought memories of days gone by. Thanks to Sandy Simonson for choosing such wonderful 3rd Friday talent!

Age Well served a traditional Oktoberfest menu, including Bratwurst and German potato salad. The National Charity League adorned our tables with fun centerpieces.

The Progressive Drawing for $150 this month. Unfortunately the winner was not present to win. That means November's prize will be $175. You must be there to win!!!

Thanks to all who made our Friday a lot of fun!

Christmas House Holiday Tea & Rancho Cucamonga Lights

Thursday, December 11

The holidays are the most wonderful time to delight in Christmas traditions! Join us as we visit the charming Christmas House Inn & Gardens, a quaint bed and breakfast inn that was built in 1904 and is rich with history and memories of a time past. Since many Christmas festivities became a tradition here, and because of the red and green stained glass throughout the house, it became known as the 'Christmas House' in the early 1900s. Enjoy a walk through the house and grounds before we indulge in the annual tradition of Christmas Tea and will include finger sandwiches, fresh scones and desserts. Later, we'll drive through the highly decorated Rancho Cucamonga holiday homes that go all out during the holiday season. This area is recognized as one of the prize locations in southern California to enjoy outdoor holiday lights!

This long-standing Los Angeles holiday tradition will put you in the mood to hang the garland and trim the Christmas tree. Just For Laughs...

My friend Allison adopted a stray cat and took him to the vet to be neutered.

"I'm about 90 percent certain he's been fixed," the vet said.

"How can I be 100 percent sure?" Allison asked.

"Watch to see if he does any 'male' things."

"He already lies on the couch all day," she said. "If he starts hogging the remote, I'll bring him in."

"Little Miss Muffet couldn't eat curds and whey because of the high fat content... she couldn't eat fruit because of pesticides... she couldn't eat eggs because of the cholesterol..."

To make a long story short, she ate the spider!"

My wife cannot ride in a car without telling whoever is driving what to do, when to do it, etc. She is, bar none, the worst back seat driver in the world. I have long thought this, though she would deny it. She claimed she seldom, if ever made comments about my driving. I, of course, claimed the opposite. Now I have proof.

The other day we were headed for the mall and my daughter piped up, "Daddy, before you married Mommy, who told you how to drive?"
